

FYS4560 Project 3

Ingrid A V Holm

April 3, 2017

This project will consist of the following steps.

1. Select and study particular final states made of particles measured by the detector.
2. Identify the underlying proton-proton process(es).
3. Interpret the results in terms of Standard Model measurement or within some new theory.